

THE ARTIST LINE UP
ATTRIBUTION FORMATIVE

BREIF:

8,

The “Gurlitt Task Force” leader Ingeborg Berggreen-Merkel’s feeling a little over worked since last November. When he and his team confiscated over a billion dollars ($1,000,000,000.00) in art at the residence of Hans Guritt. To bolster morale he is hiring a few new recruits to help sort through all the art works. The job pays well. Since you feel like you will die without a (insert name of the latest “thing” that you must have), you decide to apply.

The exam is pretty straight forward detective work. With your group of 2-3 partners, download and look at the artist case file. Read the information about your artist and decide which of the works was created by your artist. You will have to rely on the facts you have recorded on your artist line up, as well as the bio/profile included. Each group member will turn in their own notes. Now complete the following:

.....
Artist Name:

Brief Description of art work attributed to artist:.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

List three reasons for selecting this artwork.

1. I think that this painting was created by _____ because...

2. Another piece of evidence that lead me to my conclusion was...

3. I think that this painting could only be created by _____ because...

On the back list at least one reason for each artist why you ruled them out. (4,5,6,7)